

CNB bank is Illinois' oldest bank. It has been in business for 121 years and the Brighton branch has been open for 21 of those years. The branch employs seven staff members: Jim Rathgeb, Debbie Beilsmith, Glenda Roberts, Heather Roberts, Laura Cottingham, Peggy Graham and Macie Hanneken.

They offer banking services including; Personal checking and savings accounts, business checking and savings accounts, certificates of deposits, IRA's, safe deposit boxes, trust and estate services, investment and farm management services, personal and business loans, credit cards and merchant services.

The employees have periodic "jeans days" in which each employee makes a donation in exchange for wearing jeans. The donations are gifted to a local charity chosen by the employees. They also collect money and donate to Cystic Fibrosis, Options Now and Community Hope Center.

CNB is an active contributor to Brighton events including donating at the Platinum level for the 2015 fireworks, preparing a wreath for the Christmas Auction, purchasing a banner for the MS bike ride, working at the Betsy Ann Picnic Burgoo stand and donating attendance prizes for the event.

CNB is located at 202 N. Maple Street and can be reached at 618-372-3760 or visit their website at www.cnbil.com.

The Brighton Economic Development Committee is proud to have such a great, long term business in Brighton and appreciates the dedication of the business and the employees to our Village!
