SBLS has been in business for 9 years. They purchased the law practice another local lawyer in the latter part of 2013 and proceeded to open an office at 912 North Main Street in Brighton. They employ a staff of 8 which includes Todd Sivia, Jack Humes, Jr, Ashley S. Day, Paul A. Marks, Jennifer Haynes, Katelyn Overton, Rachel Cox and Mandy Darr.

Todd Sivia's great-grandfather, Harold Bott, is a former mayor of Brighton and several of the staff members, Jennifer Haynes, Rachel Cox and Mandy Darr are graduates of Southwestern High School.

The employees volunteer at the Brighton Food Pantry and have decorated and donated wreaths for the Parks' Committee wreath auctions. They are also a member of the Southwestern Chamber of Commerce and involved with The Legacy Collaboration, African Vision of Hope, Rotary International Court Appointed Special Advocates and SEEC.

Sivia Business & Legal Services hold memberships with the Macoupin County, Jersey County and Madison County Bar Associations. They were named a Future 50 company for 2015 by the St. Louis Small Business Monthly and Todd Sivia was named a 2015 Super Lawyer rising star.

Visit their website at www.sivialaw.com for more information or give them a call at 618-372-4111 or 618-659-4499 for services in family law, estate planning, special needs planning, litigation, business law, or real estate law. The Brighton office is open Monday thru Friday.

The Brighton Economic Development Committee is proud to have such a great business in Brighton and appreciates the dedication of the business and the employees to our Village.
